FILM SCHEDULE

ALL MOVIES ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE

Friday August 24, 2012 - The Gay Amigo (1949, Run Time: 60 minutes) In a case of mistaken identities The Cisco Kid and Pancho find themselves accused of being bandits raiding the Arizona border towns by U.S. Calvary leaders. After being pursued by the U.S. Calvary and crossing the border into Arizona to prove their innocence, Cisco and Pancho manage to uncover new mysteries, and find time for romance all the while discovering who the real culprits are. Oh Cisco! Oh Pancho! Starring: Duncan Renaldo, Leo Carrillo, Armida Sawyer

Friday August 31, 2012 - Follow the Band (1943, Run Time: 61 minutes) Marvin Howe is a daydreaming musician who spends his time playing the trombone rather than doing his chores on the Clover Leaf Dairy Farm. After announcing his engagement to his boss Pop Turnbull's daughter Juanita, a rival of Marvin's convinces Pop to send Marvin on a trip to New York to gain membership to the National Dairyman's Association. By twist of fate, Marvin joins a band which becomes a hit sensation, but it may cause him to lose the one thing he loves more than music, Juanita. Starring: Eddie Quillan, Anne Rooney, and Leo Carrillo

Friday September 7th, 2012 - Tight Shoes (1941 Run Time: 68 minutes) While attempting to unravel illegal gambling and corruption in New York City, journalist Allan McGrath overhears a conversation between an ex-shoe clerk Jimmy Rupert and his girlfriend Ruth about a corrupt gangster Speedy Miller who fired Jimmy for selling him "tight shoes" and ruining his illegal horse bets. Encouraged by McGrath, Jimmy attends a political rally of a crooked politician and challenges him for the nomination. As Jimmy's success becomes greater, his relationship with Ruth sours and the levels of the cities corruption become exposed. Starring: John Howard, Anne Gwynne, and Leo Carrillo

Friday September 14th, 2012 - Mexicana (1945 Run Time: 83 minutes) Heartthrob and popular Mexican singer Pepe is tired of all his female fans mobbing him after concerts and conspires with his manager Guzman to procure a fake wife to stop all the legions of fans from harassing him. Up and coming American musical comedy star Alison Calvert agrees to become his fake wife after learning of his immense popularity, but she soon believes he is conceited and trying to steal her fans away. Both Pepe and Alison try to get the other to quit the fake marriage but neither will back out. Both find they have a mutual love for children at a rehearsal for a children's choir, but scheming from Guzman and others threatens to ruin a "fake" marriage before there is a chance for real romance. Starring: Tito Guizar, Constance Moore, and Leo Carrillo

Friday September 21st, 2012 - Moonlight and Pretzels (1933 Run Time: 83 minutes) Down and out Playwright George Dwight gets a job in a music store after being fired from a show. The music stores owner Sally, falls in love with George and he dedicates a new song to her, selling the song and returning to Broadway leaving Sally behind. While George struggles with the politics of the show, Sally comes to Broadway and auditions for the show, getting a minor part but receiving the attention of George's biggest rival.. Starring: John Howard, Anne Gwynne, and Leo Carrillo
